

● PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings papers for the presentations in J-Physics2019 will be published in a volume of an open-access journal, "JPS Conference Proceedings", upon reviewing. There is no Publication charge.

Note that only one proceedings paper is published for each presentation. Do not submit more than one manuscript for one presentation.

Even if a manuscript for the proceedings has been submitted, it is not published in the following cases:

- (1) When it has been rejected by the referee(s) or the editor.
- (2) If no one has given a presentation for the assigned time.

The maximum length of manuscripts (one column) is 8 journal pages for oral papers and 6 pages for poster papers. All the manuscripts will be reviewed in the usual manner.

The deadline for the submission of manuscripts is

Sep. 24, 24:00 PDT.

The submission can be done through JPS Conf. Proc. submission page.

When you submit the manuscript, you will be requested to input your abstract submission number.

This is your program number. (e.g., Wp11, P01, etc). Find your program number. here.

The instruction for the manuscript preparation and some template files are available here.
